REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Claims 5, 8-10 and 36 have been indicated for allowance because the prior art fails to teach the combination of a printer including acquiring section that acquires a print job file representing a print job by selectively performing a first movement or a second movement, the first movement is accompanying movement which is movement of the layout file or the image file along with the print job file, the second movement is independent movement of the print job file.

Claims 29 and 32-35 have been indicated for allowance because the prior art fails to teach the combination of a data source device including a selecting section that selects a first movement or a second movement, the first movement is accompanying movement which is movement of the layout file or the image file along with the print job file, the second movement is independent movement of the print job file.

Claims 30 and 37 have been indicated for allowance because the prior art fails to teach the combination of a job file acquisition device including an acquiring section that acquires the print job file by selectively performing a first movement or a second movement, the print job file is output from the data source, the first movement is accompanying movement which is movement of the layout file or the image file along with the print job file, and the second movement is independent movement of the print job file.

2. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
